

Fluvanna Day Hab Newsletter

Holiday Headlines

“Write it on your heart that every day is the best day in the year.”
-Ralph Waldo Emerson

Volume 6, Issue 1

January 1, 2016

Fluvanna has a new addition, “Freddie the Free-loader.” He is making himself at home in our new terrarium designed by art instructor Kristen McNitt. Participants and staff held a contest to name the goldfish. Each submission to the contest was $1 and proceeds were donated to Toys for Tots.

Jon’s Journal

Happy New Year from the Fluvanna Day Program! Along with the promise of a new and exciting year ahead, Fluvanna is proud to announce the return of our monthly newsletter! We’ve had some big changes over the last few months and these include new staff, our new secretary Dan Potter, and even a new site supervisor. In addition to our new team members, we’ve been very busy participating in holiday events such as our annual Haunted Hallway, a Thanksgiving pie social, collected Toys for Tots, constructed beautiful holiday door decorations, and even went caroling with The Keynotes! Now that we’re wrapping up the holidays, it’s time to start the New Year off right by focusing on how we can better serve those who receive services at the facility! Our amazing activity leaders will be collaborating with other TRC Day Habs to develop fresh new ideas to incorporate into our daily activities here at Fluvanna. We have an exciting year ahead of us, and we’d like to wish everyone a safe, happy, and healthy new year! Try to make a New Year resolution to stop down and see what kind of great things are happening at the Fluvanna Day Hab this year!