

MJRC Chronicles

MJRC supports Breast Cancer Awareness, Step-Up for Autism and Musical Talent

The Choir and Bell Choir performed a variety of songs including a rendition from The Wizard of Oz. The choir members dressed up as different characters from the movie.

Tamara (Above Left) the Wicked Witch, Gabe (Above) the Tin Man, Tina (Above Right) was the Scarecrow, RJ (Left) the Cowardly Lion.

Debbie and Becky (Above) were one of the groups going site to site selling pink support items to benefit the WCA Cancer Treatment Center for Breast Cancer.

Upcoming News:

Join us on November 14 for the MJRC Annual Craft Bazaar.

“You are never too old to set another goal or to dream a new dream” C.S.

Dawn (Left) is showing off her artwork she entered for the 2014 Step-Up for Autism logo contest. Her artwork was chosen for the logo to go on the shirts. Dawn received a complimentary shirt and gift card.

The Vibe room made 100 Wicked Apples in 2 flavors as their fundraiser for their room (Left).